PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, National Sunday School Week is being observed throughout the United States and is supported for all faiths by the Laymen's National Committee; and

WHEREAS, the purposes of this program is to focus public attention on the great contributions which Sunday Schools make to the education of our boys and girls and to the spiritual life of the Nation; and

WHEREAS, it is indeed appropriate that all South Dakotans recognize the benefits to be gained by young people through regular attendance at Sunday School; and

WHEREAS, the Sunday Schools and Churches of South Dakota are very active in doing fine work in the moral and spiritual development in South Dakota young people:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 9-15, 1956, as

SUNDAY SCHOOL WEEK

in South Dakota and do urge all South Dakotans to support the Sunday Schools and Churches of their community and encourage the young people with which they have close association to attend Sunday School and receive the resultant benefits.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 3rd day of April, 1956.
